Dear Commissioner O'Connor:

Mr. Frank Wisner delivered to me the copy of Roman Smal-Stocki's book "The Nationality Problem Of The Soviet Union", which you left with him.

I have just returned to the office after a few days' absence, so have not had a chance to do more than glance through the book. However, I do appreciate your thoughtfulness and look forward with pleasure to reading about one of the problems of national concern. Many thanks.

Sincerely,
